

MY HOLIDAY PLANS

I have a lot of plans about my summer holidays and I think this year's holidays are going to be the greatest holidays ever, because I have just won the scratch ticket competition and won the ten-million-dollar grand prize!!!

Yesterday evening while I was counting for 10th time my millions I made a plan about my summer holidays.

Firsty I am going to go to Bahamas to have a seven-days cruise with the largest cruise ship in the world called "Oasis of the Seas". You will never be bored on that ship. You can swim in the large swimming pool, do climbing on the huge climbing walls, dance at the discos, and do a lot of other things to. The ship stops at two cities until the end of the cruise. On the second day the ship stops at the capital city called "Nassau", where we are going to have a walk. After that we are going to pass the Panama canal to go to the USA part of sea. On the fifth day we stop at San Francisco and the cruise finally ends...

...But not my holidays yet!!! At the harbour I am going to rent a car and to go to LAS VEGAS to continue my holidays(yeahhh...!!!! I'll stay in Las Vegas for five days and I have a lot of plans about my visit there. Those were my holiday plans...what about yours?
